

Massage Therapy Foundation Announces 2006 Student Case Report Winners

The Massage Therapy Foundation is pleased to announce the winners of the 2006 Student Case Report Contest. This year's First Place Gold Award goes to Lindsay Phipps Eisensmith from the Groton Campus of the Connecticut Center for Massage Therapy. Her report is titled "Massage Therapy Decreases Frequency and Intensity of Symptoms Related to Temporomandibular Joint Disorder." As the first place winner, Mrs. Eisensmith receives $2,500 cash, an invitation to present her report during a Foundation-sponsored session at the AMTA National Convention in Atlanta, $1,000 each for both herself and her faculty supervisor to attend the 2006 Convention, publication of her report in Journal of Bodywork and Movement Therapies" (JBMT) and several other prizes including WinCity SOAP Notes software....

The Massage Therapy Foundation is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt, public charity that promotes research, community service and education in the field of therapeutic massage and bodywork. For more information the Foundation, please visit www.massagetherapyfoundation.org.